

Official UNFCCC Side Event

Closing the Accountability Gap: A Forest Roadmap Priority

Wednesday, 10 June 2026

16:30 - 17:45

Kaminzimmer, WCCB Bonn

The COP30 Presidency's Forest Roadmap is a transformative opportunity to address longstanding policy barriers—including weak, inequitable global accountability. This panel will explore the ways in which the Roadmap can strengthen global accountability for halting and reversing deforestation and forest degradation by 2030.

Speakers

Marco Tulio Scarpelli Cabral, Head of Division of Environment II, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Brazil

Kate Dooley, Senior Research Fellow, University of Melbourne

Jennifer Skene, Global Forest Policy Director, Natural Resources Defense Council (NRDC)

Virginia Young, Senior Research Fellow, Griffith University

Katja Garson, Researcher and Campaigner, Stand.earth

SFO°C